As the weather gets warmer, this Asian Chicken Salad recipe is perfect for a light and fresh lunch or dinner option. This recipe is from delish.com and takes about 20 minutes total and serves 4.

Ingredients:

1/3 cup rice vinegar	1 seedless cucumber, cut into ribbons w/peeler
1/3 cup vegetable oil	1 yellow bell pepper, cut into matchsticks
kosher salt	2 romaine heads, shredded
1 ginger, peeled and cut into slices against the grain
2 scallions, chopped, plus more for garnish
1 1/2 boneless skinless chicken breasts cut into 1/2" cubes
1 cup matchstick carrots

To Do:

Add rice vinegar, vegetable oil, 1 tsp kosher salt, and ginger in a blender. Start low and increase in speed until well blended. Add scallions and stir with a spoon. Pour half of this dressing into a medium mixing bowl and set aside the remaining mixture.

Add chicken to the medium mixing bowl and marinate for 2 minutes. In a large skillet over medium heat, add chicken and marinade. Stir occasionally until chicken is cooked through-about 5-7minutes.

Toss carrots, cucumbers, bell pepper, and romaine in a large serving bowl. Top with warm chicken and dressing, garnish with scallions, and serve with additional dressing.

Do you have a recipe that your friends and family love? We want to share them in the Church Mouse. Please submit any recipes/pictures to Adina (asetzer01@stny.rr.com) by the 20th of each month.
